

1 APPLICABILITY

- 1.1 These terms and conditions of sale ("Terms") are the only terms which govern the sale of the product and services ("Goods") by Hamilton Company, ("Hamilton") a Nevada corporation, and the purchaser of Goods ("Customer"). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if a written contract signed by both parties is in existence covering the sale of the Goods covered hereby, the terms and conditions of said contract shall prevail to the extent they are inconsistent with these Terms.
- 1.2 These Terms are applicable to all transactions ("Purchase Agreement") between Customer and Hamilton, including those which represent the implementation of any standard or specialized solution utilizing the Goods for throughput, assay, or other clinical or laboratory function ("Hamilton Solution"). A Hamilton Solution is not a specific part number, but rather is a process utilizing the Goods. As such, specific parts listed within the quotation may require substitution, addition, or subtraction of specified parts. Customer hereby acknowledges and agree that Hamilton has the authority to make such changes to the line items within the quotation and the Purchase Agreement necessary to implement the Hamilton Solution, provided that such changes do not materially diminish the performance, quality or utility of the Hamilton Solution.
- 1.3 In order to meet the needs of State and County tax laws for products and services, it is necessary to place purchase orders ("Purchase Orders") with Hamilton with a single price and associated reference to a specific quotation to which such price relates, or by line item as they appear in the final quotation. Tax will be determined and set out within the invoice for the Goods.

2 QUOTATIONS

Quotations shall only be binding if they contain a stated period of validity and upon approval of credit application per consent from the Hamilton Finance department.

3 DELIVERY

- 3.1 The estimated delivery time of Goods will be stated in each quotation and will be dependent upon multiple factors such as current resource workload, third-party item delivery times, hardware creation times and software application development time. The delivery time starts with the date of Hamilton order acknowledgment and ends when the shipment is ready for dispatch or a site acceptance test if required, as stated within the applicable quotation. Hamilton will use all means necessary to deliver product as mutually agreed to and will keep the Customer informed of possible delays if applicable. Compliance with the delivery time is conditional upon the Customer fulfilling their Purchase Agreement contractual obligations, e.g. notification of all essential technical specifications, availability of samples, import permits, down payments, letters of credit etc.
- 3.2 The delivery time is reasonably extended if one of the cases applies:
 - 3.2.1 The information required by Hamilton for performance of the Purchase Agreement is not received in time, or if the Customer subsequently changes a Purchase Agreement thereby causing a delivery delay of the Goods. All changes requested by the Customer require a revised Purchase Order from the Customer.
 - 3.2.2 Hindrances occur which prevent Hamilton from performing a Purchase Agreement by force majeure. Hindrances include epidemics, mobilization, war, revolution, serious breakdowns in the works, accidents, labor conflicts, late or deficient delivery by subcontractors of raw materials, semi-finished or finished products, official actions or omissions by any state authorities or public bodies, and natural catastrophes. If the Customer claims damages for delayed delivery, it must be proven that the delay was caused through Hamilton's fault and that the Customer has suffered a loss as a result of such delay. If substitute material can be supplied to accommodate the Customer, the latter is not entitled to claim any delay damages. Any delayed delivery does not entitle the Customer to any rights and claims other than those expressly stipulated herein.

4 SHIPPING TERMS, TITLE & RISK OF LOSS

- 4.1 Delivery shall be made DAP Incoterms 2020 PPD & Add. Title and risk of loss passes to Customer upon delivery of the Goods.
- 4.2 Costs associated with shipping and delivery ("Freight ") shall be charged to Customer at the rates negotiated and set forth pursuant to the Purchase Order and invoice, with the invoice to govern any discrepancy between the two.
- 4.3 When assistance from third-party riggers is required to assist with placement of Goods, the expense will be added to the Freight charges. Disposal of all packaging and packing materials is the Customer's responsibility.

5 SITE PREPARATION, INSTALLATION AND ACCEPTANCE

- 5.1 Hamilton shall provide Customer with Hamilton's site requirements and preparation recommendations ("Site Requirements") including but not limited to cooling needs, electrical power, space, lighting, rigging and grounding requirements promptly after Hamilton's receipt and acceptance of a Purchase Order for Goods. Hamilton shall perform all tasks necessary to install the Goods, including but not limited to, uncrating, unpacking, field assembly and inspection.
- 5.2 Customer shall obtain and maintain all necessary registrations, licenses, and consents to comply with Hamilton's installation of the Goods before the date on which the installation services are to start.
- 5.3 Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, acceptance shall be affected immediately after installation at the Customer's premises. In addition, acceptance shall also be deemed completed when: (i) Hamilton has satisfied its standard installation qualification to show performance to manufacturer's specification or exceptional conditions agreed upon in writing with the Customer prior to acknowledgment of the Purchase Order by Hamilton; or (ii) as soon as the Customer uses the Goods in a non- acceptance test mode. If the Customer delays acceptance, the outstanding amounts are due thirty (30) days after delivery.

6 INSPECTION & REJECTION OF NONCONFORMING GOODS

- 6.1 Customer shall inspect the packaging the Goods arrive in and if there is visible damage, they shall report this immediately to the freight carrier as well as Hamilton.
- 6.2 Customer shall inspect the Goods within ten (10) business days after delivery ("Inspection Period"). Customer will be deemed to have inspected the Goods unless it notifies Hamilton in writing of any Nonconforming Goods during the Inspection Period and furnishes such written evidence or other documentation as required by Hamilton. In no event shall any period of time greater than thirty (30) calendar days be considered a "reasonable period" as set forth above. "Nonconforming Goods" means only the following: (i) product shipped is different than identified in Customer's Purchase Order; or (ii) product's label or packaging incorrectly identifies its contents.
- 6.3 If Customer timely notifies Hamilton of any Nonconforming Goods, Hamilton shall, in its sole discretion, (i) replace such Nonconforming Goods with conforming Goods, or (ii) credit or refund the purchase price for such Nonconforming Goods, together with any reasonable shipping and handling expenses incurred by Customer in connection therewith. Customer shall ship, at its expense and risk of loss, the Nonconforming Goods, in their original packaging, to Hamilton's facility located at 4970 Energy Way, Reno, Nevada 89502. If Hamilton exercises its option to replace Nonconforming Goods, Hamilton shall, after receiving Customer's shipment of Nonconforming Goods, ship to Customer, at Hamilton's expense and risk of loss, the replaced Goods to the Customer at their location.
- 6.4 Customer acknowledges and agrees that the remedies set forth in Section 6.3 are Customer's exclusive remedies for the delivery of Nonconforming Goods.

7 SECURITY INTEREST

In order to secure payment for the Goods and as collateral security for the payment of the purchase price of the Goods and any other current or future obligations of the Customer to Hamilton, Customer hereby grants to Hamilton a lien on and security interest in and to all of the right, title and interest of Customer in, to and under the Goods, wherever located, and whether now existing or hereafter arising or acquired from time to time, and in all accessions thereto and replacements or modifications thereof, as well as all proceeds (including insurance proceeds) of the foregoing. The security interest granted under this provision constitutes a purchase money security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code. This security interest will terminate only on the discharge in full of all the payment obligations for purchase of the Goods and all such other obligations of Customer to Hamilton.

If Customer fails to pay any such amount when due, Hamilton may elect to pay it and Customer will promptly reimburse Hamilton for such payment, together with interest from the date paid at the Short Term Quarterly Applicable Federal Rate. If Hamilton is required to obtain any local permit or license to enable it to install the Goods or perform any services for Customer, Customer shall reimburse Hamilton for such related fees and charges.

Hamilton reserves the right to refuse the return of any Goods that have been used with infectious, microbiological, or radioactive substances or other materials that may be deemed hazardous to the employees of Hamilton.
